

Billy Budd, Sailor

This suspense-filled tale presents the collision between good and evil... as an adventure on the high seas. When Billy Budd is forced into service on a British man-of-war on its way to fight the French, the young sailor's good nature begins to have a powerful effect on the rest of his shipmates. One man, however, is appalled by Billy's innocence. And the stage is set for a test of justice that will linger in your soul long after this powerful audio drama has finished. Radio Theatre takes advantage of award-winning voice actors, orchestral musical scores, motion-picture quality sound design, and riveting scripts to unveil finished products that have earned such coveted awards as the George Foster Peabody, the Audie Award, and the Parents Choice Award - to name just a few. Radio Theatre isn't just storytelling. It's not a book-on-tape. It's a movie that plays on the biggest screen of all... your imagination.
