

Cuba & Dog House (Connections)

Two plays for younger audiences, from Fabers highly acclaimed drama list. Cuba by Liz Lochhead is set at the time of the 1962 Cuban Missile Crisis. As events unfold and people begin to fear the worst, Barbara and Bernadette decide to mount their own school protest. Daring each other on, they take on the Establishment - but not without cost to their friendship. In Gina Moxleys Dog House the cycle of young friendships and romance in Lime Lawn, Cork City is unaffected by the arrival of new neighbors - until the fear and brutality they live under begin to become apparent.
