

Heliogabalus: Or, The Crowned Anarchist (Creation Modern Classics)

Antonin Artaud's novelized biography of the third-century Roman Emperor Heliogabalus is both his most accessible and his most extreme book. Written in 1933, when Artaud was preparing his legendary Theatre of Cruelty, Heliogabalus is a powerful concoction of sexual excess, self-deification, and terminal violence. Reflecting its author's preoccupation with the occult, magic, Satan, and esoteric religions, the author assembles an entire world-view from the raw material of insanity, sexual obsession and anger.
