

Amethyst (Grandmothers Rings Trilogy)

Love voodoo? Somer Archer didnt believe such a thing existed when her mother handed her and her siblings each one of their grandmothers rings and told them the rings would help them find their soul mates. As a reporter for the local paper, Somer deals in fact, not fiction. A New York City police officer assigned to rural New Jersey as part of a Homeland Security cross-training initiative, Nick Daultry plans on completing his assignment and getting back to the city as quickly as possible. But when he finds Somer going through his desk at the station, suddenly small town crime seems awfully interesting. Despite mixing as well as oil and water, Somer and Nick find themselves caught up in the same case. Is it just a reporters interest in a story that draws Somer to Nick as well, or is her grandmothers ring working some magic after all?
