

The Lively Lady

Young Captain Richard Nason of Arundel, Maine, is the successful commander of his family's brig, which carries cargo to and from ports all over the world. Hence, he has no use for the talk of war with England -- until he is kidnapped by a press gang and forced to serve aboard a British warship. He escapes to take revenge on his abusive captors as skipper of the privateer Lively Lady, a sloop that he names after the young, pretty, vivacious wife of dour, bigoted English nobleman Arthur Ransome, whom Nason encountered in Maine before going to war. Due to a twist of fate, Nason and his crew are captured and taken to England's infamous Dartmoor Prison, where the American suffers hardships that last even beyond the end of the war. On a vibrant background of sailing ships and hand-to-hand combat, Roberts uses more subtle brushstrokes to portray extraordinary courage in the face of despair, unlikely friendships that endure the worst of circumstances, and unspoken love that stands the test of time.

Lively Lady was built in Calcutta in 1948 by her owner S.J.P. Cambridge who had made a study of wooden yacht design during the war. He was assisted by Lively Lady, the 36ft yacht made famous by the late Sir Alec Rose back in 1968 is being rebuilt so she can sail around the World again. Sir Alec was the Camden Harbor Cruises: Lively Lady - See 147 traveler reviews, 94 candid photos, and great deals for Camden, ME, at TripAdvisor. The boat in question was Lively Lady, a 36 foot cutter which is known as the vessel of the late Sir Alec Rose. With this trusty yacht, Rose - 2 min - Uploaded by British Pathe Round-the-world solo yachtsman Alec Rose and Lively Lady on show in London, at Daily Now, the grandson of Lively Lady's ex-skipper, Sir Alec who was first to sail the 36ft boat across the globe in 1968 has spoken out about the Lively Lady Bar & Grill, Arusha: See 20 unbiased reviews of Lively Lady Bar & Grill, rated 4.5 of 5 on TripAdvisor and ranked #39 of 129 restaurants in Arusha. The Lively Lady was built by Robert F. Rich, a famous lobster boat builder, at Bass Harbor Boatshop on Mount Desert Island in 1971. She was built for Park When Alec Rose bought Lively Lady in 1964, her entries in Lloyds Register of Yachts started to give her designer as Frederick Shepherd. Before then, under the THE LIVELY LADY AND CAPTAIN CAUTION, by Kenneth Roberts, Doubleday & Company, 1959, Near Fine/ Very Good. This is a Collectible Hardcover Book. THE LIVELY LADY The Lively Lady is the best historical novel we have read in years. After considering soberly the works of William Stearns Davis and S. Weir This third installment in the Chronicles of Arundel is set during the War of 1812, The Lively Lady follows the fortunes of Richard Nason, an American sailing