Its 2016, and the country is once again in the grip of Big Brother fever - but this time the shows producers are dead set to boost ratings by fair means or foul... But when a killer targets the group, they find themselves in a struggle for their lives. Watching from outside is highbrow journalist John Margrave. Together with his tabloid mate Darren Deacon, the unlikely pair become ensnared in the murderers scheme as they race the police to discover who is behind the slayings. Can they stop him in his tracks - or will they be the next victims of this all-too-real TV show?
