

INSTRUCTIONS TO GRANDMOTHERS BASKET

This is a very lovely basket she would be proud to show to anyone. Grandmothers are very loving people and will share whatever she can see, remember, think of are dream up! I made this on just a quick lark not too long ago. Somehow grandmothers floated through my head. A smile spread over my face and the deed was about to be done. A very unique pine needle basket from Long leaf pine needles we grew up with but at the time didn't know there was value in things like nature, trees, grasses and clouds give you inspiration. On a warm spring day while lounging on the levee of the Mississippi River near where I grew up I realized the value in all things God puts in our path. If we take time to think about them or even act on them we are so blessed in all things natural it can blow your mind. How many years of warm summer days or cool rainy days when I sat still and listened did I see great things. I reached out and stored them in my head for future times when I needed ideas. Oh if I could only talk with you and tell you all I saw and still see it would make you excited about this world we live in. People! we are missing the boat! Stop wherever you are now. Just a split second to listen, see, and even smell what ever is around you. So blessed we can spend a lifetime thinking of useless things and never smell a rose. I want so much to give you a clue at least to see what you have missed. But it is never too late. I am up in years and still thrill at the sight of a lady blue bird going about her work of building her nest. I have to laugh sometimes when she flies in with half a bale of straw and takes minutes to jam it into that small hole in her house she is proud to call her home. Do you realize she does this more than once a year? And then next year she is so happy to start over and do it again. We need the will and want to of a great lady like the one you may have had when you were very young. Grandmother. Can you see her now and hear her voice of wisdom and remember how she hugged you so tight? If you can, then you got this message and her blood flows through your veins. Here is my gift to all grandmothers. This is simple, fun and brings pleasure to so many long after we leave this place. COILING IS SIMPLE AND FUN. MAKE ONE BASKET AND YOU ARE HOOKED!! Get your children hooked on this art form and enjoy this simple project together. It is worthwhile and pine needles are free.
